

SENIOR COMMUNICATIONS STAFF AUGMENTATION & TEAM DEVELOPMENT

Gladius offers communications leadership and staff support on a contract basis to help clients who need to cover a leave of absence, have bridge capacity while recruiting to fill a role, or explore an innovative way to bring permanent communications capability to an organization. As former in-house communications leaders, our world-class team members have unmatched experience working directly with senior operational executives and seamlessly as part of a broader team.

CAPABILITIES

On-Demand World-Class Communications Leadership Talent

Gladius professionals are corporate communications veterans and seasoned advisors to business leaders. Working with our team provides access to decades of collective full-spectrum communications experience and expertise.

Flexible and Scalable Staffing Models

Whether for permanent, temporary, or fractional support, we can provide a customized individual or team solution needed to supplement your organization's communications function at the level and duration needed.

Professional & Organizational Development

We have extensive experience coaching and developing both communications leaders, teams, and designing optimized organizational structures. Our proven track record of enabling talent, guiding new leaders, and sparking innovation through individual coaching or facilitated team development sessions helps maximize the potential of individuals and communications teams.
